

2018 IEEE Asia Pacific Conference on Circuits and Systems

Chengdu, China

Oct 26-30, 2018

Call for Special Sessions IEEE APCCAS 2018

+ Conference Introduction

2018 IEEE Asia Pacific Conference on Circuits and Systems (IEEE APCCAS 2018), the Regional Flag Conference in Asia, will be held in Chengdu, China at the Shangri-La Hotel, Chengdu during Oct 26-30, 2018. The APCCAS is a major international forum established by the IEEE Circuits and Systems Society for researchers to exchange their latest findings in circuits and systems.

IEEE APCCAS 2018 solicits proposals for special sessions within the technical scope of the conference. Special sessions supplement the regular program of the conference and provide a sample of the state-of-the-art research in both academia and industry in special, novel, challenging, and emerging topics.

Special-session proposals should be submitted by the prospective organizer(s) who will commit to promoting and handling the review process of their special session as Chairs or Co-Chairs of the event. Proposals should include the following information:

Title;

Name(s) of organizer(s);

Email of main contact person;

Brief bio(s) of organizer(s);

Brief description;

Related topics;

Potential participants;

A draft of the CFP

Description of publicity and promotion plan;

Brief report on past editions of the special session, if any, including the number of submitted and accepted papers, the number of attendees, etc

Papers submitted to special sessions will have to be evaluated and peer-reviewed along the very same criteria of the regular sessions.

Travel Guide in Chengdu

1. Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda

The Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding specializes in baby pandas and their care. It has been created and imitated the natural habitat of giant pandas in order that they might have the best possible environment for rearing and breeding. Chengdu Panda Base not only takes care of breeding pandas, but also focuses on providing interactive activities that teach people about pandas and their protection. Besides cute giant pandas, there are also red pandas, black swans, and peacocks in the base. Therefore, when visitors from home and abroad come to Chengdu, this is one of the most popular destinations. And it's a must-go place when you go to Chengdu.

2. Chunxi Road

If one travels to Chengdu for the first time, Chunxi Road Pedestrian Street is a place that should not be missed. It is the most representative, historic, and busy commercial pedestrian street of the city. There are many famous brands and big shopping malls, traditional Chengdu food and branded restaurants. It has become the favorite shopping area of many foreign tourists and local white-collar workers.

3. Tianfu Square

Tianfu square, the symbol of Chengdu, is located in the city center. Being the largest city square in southwest China, it enjoys similar position and fame in Sichuan as Tiananmen Square in Beijing. It is also the busiest area in the Commercial and Business District of the city, and popular with both the locals and the tourists. It is said that one who fails to visit Tianfu Square doesn't even visit Chengdu.

4. Wide and Narrow Alley

Consisting of Wide Alley, Narrow Alley, Well Alley three parallel ancient city alleys and 45 courtyards along them. Wide and Narrow Alley is one of Chengdu's historical and cultural reserves, together with Daci Temple reserve and Wenshu Monastery reserve. It is a microcosm of the city's history as well as a deep mark in local people's memory.

5. Jinli Street

Chengdu is a city brimming with a strong leisurely ambience with Jinli Street as the typical representative. The street is located to the east of the Wuhou Temple of Chengdu. Here are many traditional-style buildings, restaurants as well as sidewalk booths offering local snacks that will make your mouth water.
